SOUP . . . the Hurry-Up Hot Dish for LUNCH

Dorothy Greig

An amusing thing about modern life is that soup, formerly a food that consumed hours of time to make, is now one that's ready for the table in just about nothing flat. Open the can, add an equal quantity of water or milk, heat—and there you are.

Philadelphia Pepper Pot Soup is a savory choice for a windy day.

At no time are modern soups more useful than for lunch. They provide the hot food the meal should have—and in a hurry. They are nourishing. And everybody enjoys comforting hot soup for the noon day meal.

The choice of soups is astonishing these days, too. . . smooth cream soups made by adding milk to pea, celery, asparagus or tomato; hearty stick-to-the-ribs meat and vegetable soups; spicy soups such as pepper pot; thin stimulating soups like consommé and bouillon. Two or more soups can be combined, too, to furnish still other delicious flavors. For instance:

Pepper Pot Potage

- 1 can condensed pea soup
- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 1 can condensed pepper pot soup
- 3 cans milk, using soup can for measure

Combine the pea, tomato and pepper pot soups. Then add 3 cans of milk, using soup can for a measure. Heat, but do not boil. Serves 4-5.

Here's another for those with a taste for the unusual:

Chicken Soup—Mulligatawny Style

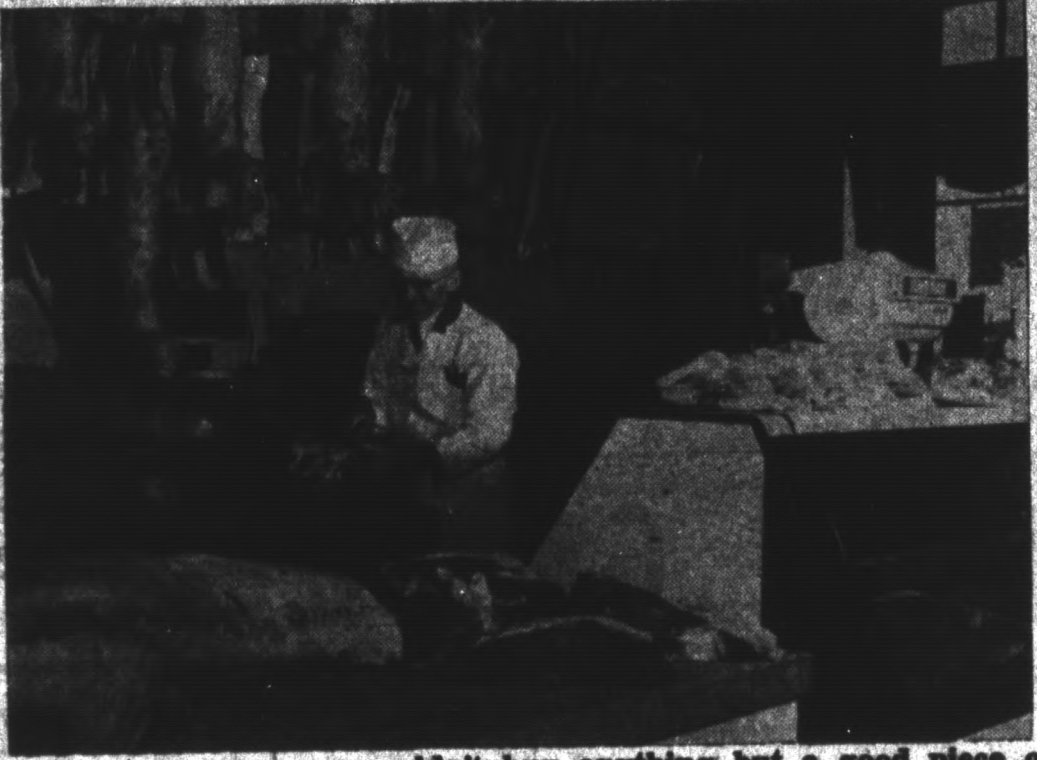

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 can milk or light cream (using soup can for measure)
- 1 can condensed chicken soup
- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 1/2 teaspoon curry powder

Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and cook until frothy, then add the cream and cook until thickened (this is a thin cream sauce). Add the chicken soup, tomato soup and curry powder and heat thoroughly, but do not boil. Serves 4-5.

Butcher At Joe's Market

Here's a man you couldn't buy anything but a good piece of meat from if you tried. It's Stephen Marelich, new butcher, behind the counter of his department at Joe's Market, 6601 Mission street. Steve joins Joe Zacheo to complete the line of foodstuffs offered the public by the popular market. He opened his department last week with as fine a display of quality meats as may be seen in Daly City. Marelich had been successfully engaged in business in San Francisco for many years before coming to Daly City.

New Airplane

The United States army has developed an observation airplane that can rise into the air 50 feet after starting a flight and stop within 100 feet of alighting.

Indian Custom

During funeral ceremonies among the Indians of Ecuador, a widow sings the names of all the foods liked by her departed husband while he was alive.

Diet Changes
Since 1917 the American public has changed its diet by increasing the use of salads, malted milk, whole milk, fresh fruit, canned fruit and fresh vegetables.

Busy Stark
Joshua Jenkins received a letter from his twin brother, Jonathan of Grand Rapids, Mich., announcing the birth of a son. Joshua just had mailed a similar announcement to Jonathan.

'Jim Crow' in Warsaw
The South, in these good old United States is not the only place where "Jim Crow" streetcars are in operation. They have been installed in Warsaw, one compartment for Germans and the other for Poles and Jews. The reason—"spotted typhoid being prevalent among Poles and Jews."

Movie Monopoly
Coatesville, Pa., is the only town in the United States where the Y. M. C. A. has a movie monopoly.
Its only competitor was taken over about seven years ago. The town frequently sees first run pictures before Philadelphia or New York.

House of Cotton
The Farm Security administration is conducting experiments in the use of cotton as a building fabric. A house has been erected in Coffee, Ala., with roof and walls covered with cotton duck. The material is nailed to a smooth backing of plywood, plaster or composition board.
It is painted with a mixture of white lead and linseed oil. The cost of such a house, including modern plumbing and electric wiring, is only about $1,350.

Hot Handle Holder Made of a heat insulating, non-absorbent rubber, a holder has been invented to be slipped over the hot handles of cooking utensils.

No Log Cabins
Although most American illustrations picture them in log cabins, the late Harold R. Shurtleff, in the Log Cabin Myth, published by Harvard University Press, states that there were no log cabins in early New England or Virginia. They built frame houses.

Happy Family
A big, happy family, all year round, are employees of the Central Vermont railway. A glance at the payroll roster reveals the names of Parent, Child, Relation and Friend.
Then there are Summers, Winters, Raine, Snow, Fogz, Hallé, Frost and Flood.

Job's Daughters Announce Whist

Bethel 68, Order of Job's Daughters, today invited the public to attend their benefit whist, next Wednesday evening at Crocker Masonic hall. In charge of arrangements for the party is Senior Princess Lois Foster. She announces that a cash first prize and many other attractive awards have been procured.

Playing will begin at 8:30 p. m. Proceeds from the event are used to help defray expenses of the annual installation.

Refreshments will be served for a very nominal price at the party.

Museum for Youth

Since the modern youth section of the Illinois State museum was opened in Springfield recently, the usual "Hey, Mom, what's that mean?" approach of juvenile museum visitors is going out of use. For the new branch has been designed throughout to promote the imagination and to brighten the intellect of boys and girls by presenting natural history displays in a way comprehensible to them. Simple, uncrowded displays in specially made cases, together with simply worded labels, go a long way in this direction.

Home Work

Since the invasion of Holland and Belgium, members of the senate committee handling army and navy affairs have taken to holding off-the-record evening meetings in each other's homes to brush up on the facts about Uncle Sam's defenses, with high United States military experts invited in as "teachers." The speed with which the senate has acted on national defense measures is taken as evidence that the senators are apt pupils and learn fast.

Girl Bull-Fighter

Whirlwind attraction in the bull rings of Peru, Portugal, and Mexico City is 17-year-old Conchita Cintron, declares the American Magazine. She already has 31 victories to her credit. Conchita spent most of her childhood training to be a bull-fighter.

As Ginger Dresses "Kitty Foyle"

Ginger Rogers' screen interpretation of Christopher Morley's "white collar heroine" of his best-selling novel, "Kitty Foyle," as produced by RKO Radio, is marked by an attractive wholesomeness that is characteristic of Ginger and essentially modern. This is reflected also in the way Ginger dresses the role of Kitty. Here are two examples. At left is a deftly styled jumper dress whose black faille is softened by lace-trimmed white soufflé. The ruffled cuffs on the pantaloons sleeves to the blouse repeat the lace trim shown in the high-necked dicker front. . . . At right Ginger wears a wrap-around hood of which has a cross-fox lining. Both of the garments, designed by Ronie, studio stylist, combine good taste, practicability and eye-appeal to a high degree. The screen drama will be showing at the Daly City theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Girls in Munitions

Girls in munitions factories in Germany clean shells to be used by their menfolk at the front.

New Lake

A lake 150 miles long, reaching across the border into Canada, will be formed behind Coulee dam.

Use Sink Stoppers
In dry Oklahoma sink stoppers can be part of a police officer's equipment. When Lieut. V. O. Webb and two other officers raided a home a woman emptied a dishpan of liquid into the sink. Webb quickly stoppered the sink, drained and siphoned out a quart of what he says was whisky. He was carrying the stopper in his pocket.

Too Shy

Fred Kral, 73 years old, is "too shy and embarrassed," according to his 64-year-old bride of Cleveland. So, Mrs. Kral freely admits, she not only did the proposing, but also reversed the usual process by bestowing a kiss on the blushing bridegroom at the end of the ceremony.

Human Head Sacred

In the Fiji Islands, the human head is held to be sacred and it is an insult to reach above the head of another person. Women in consequence crawl on their hands and knees when men are at leisure inside a house. Persons who have been insulted are likely to commit suicide to eradicate the shame.
